

Minneapolis-St. Paul-Bloomington, MN-WI

- In 2007, the Minneapolis-St. Paul-Bloomington metropolitan area was the tenth largest export market in the United States, with sales totaling $21.6 billion.
- Canada was the leading export destination for Minneapolis-St. Paul's exports of goods in 2007. Other leading destinations were Mexico and China.
- Crop production was the top Minneapolis-St. Paul export for 2007, accounting for $5.4 billion, or 25 percent, of exported goods.
- Other top exports were computer and electronic products ($3.2 billion, 15 percent); machinery, except electrical ($2.4 billion, 11 percent); miscellaneous manufactured commodities ($2.1 billion, 10 percent); and food and kindred products ($1.3 billion, 6 percent).

Data year: 2007. Last updated: February 11, 2009.

Contact: Liz Clark (202-482-5732) & Michael Greene (202-482-2551), Office of Trade and Industry Information